This session will focus on taking and defending a discovery deposition of a construction expert in a personal injury case. Materials, including expert reports, will be provided in advance of the session setting forth the fact pattern and respective opinions of the parties' experts. The session will commence with a learning portion, after which participants will break out into groups to take and defend mock depositions of the witnesses whose reports were provided.

Please note that this session is separate from the 2023 Spring Conference.
